

Allen Named WMSC Manager

Thomas H. Allen Jr. will become general manager of Radio Station WMSC here Monday, according to an announcement from C. Wallace Martin, owner of the station.

Mr. Martin has resigned his duties as general manager to accept a position as director for Development at the University of South Carolina.

Mr. Allen, a native Columbian, attended the Columbia city schools and the University of South Carolina. He served for 14 years as a Columbia theater manager and for the past five years as local sales representative for WIS-TV.

Mr. Allen has been active in civic and church work for a number of years. He has served as a vestryman and Senior Warden of Good Shepherd Episcopal Church, President of Columbia Optimist Club, Lt. Governor 18th District of Optimist International and holds an honorary life membership in the Columbia Chamber of Commerce. He is presently captain of a member committee in the Chamber of Commerce "Can Do" club, and on the Board of Directors of the Columbia Advertising Club.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Allen Sr. of Columbia, and is married to the former Mildred Taylor. The Allens have two daughters, Kennon and Marion Brockington; and a son, Thomas H. III. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.
