

LOCAL STATION WILL AIR TEN YANK GAMES

With the Roger Maris-Mickey Mantle assault on Babe Ruth's home run record attracting more attention to baseball than ever before, radio station WMSC of Columbia has obtained permission to broadcast ten New York Yankee home games during the critical month of September.

Lou Essex, sports director of the station, announced Saturday that negotiations for series had just been completed. The Yankees agreed to allow WMSC to pick up a recreation from Sumter station WFIG, where interest centers on a home-town boy, NY second baseman Bobby Richardson.

The first broadcast is scheduled for 7 p.m. on September 1, when the second-place Detroit Tigers will be in Yankee Stadium for a vital series.

The rest of the schedule follows:

September 4, Washington, 1 p.m.; 5, Washington, 7 p.m.;
6, Washington, 7 p.m.; 7, opponent to be announced, 7 p.m.;
8, Cleveland, 7 p.m.; 10, Cleveland, 3:45 p.m.; 26, Baltimore,
7 p.m.; 27, Baltimore, 1 p.m.; 29, Boston, 7 p.m.
